

Dear Referring Physician,

Try Physical Therapy First

Thank you for your interest, and for referring your patient to

Upon verification of your patient's eligibility for treatment, we will see your patient within 24 hours of their call. The physical therapy evaluation will be sent to you within 48 hours of your patient's first visit. Our objective is to get your patient well as quickly as possible.

We are always available, and will be happy to answer any questions you may have. Our mutual understanding and cooperation will reflect positively to introduce the best services to your patient, and our services will be a model of consistency and professionalism.

We welcome any suggestions you have to help us not only to achieve excellence, but also to fulfill your patient's physical therapy needs.

